3. Actual Users should submit their applications complete in all respect, on or before 15th August 1960. Applications from Actual Users should reach the respective Sponsoring Authorities for grant of Essentiality Certificate on or before 15th June 1960. Applications for grant to Essentiality certificates submitted thereafter, will not qualify for grant of Actual User's Licences. The Actual Users should try to secure the Essentiality Certificate from the certifying authority and submit the applications for Import Licences well in advance of the last date. In cases where the Essentiality Certificate has been applied for on or before 15th June 1960, but has not been granted, the Actual Users should submit their applications with a copy of the application made for the grant of Essentiality Certificate to the Licensing Authority within the prescribed last date i.e. 15th August 1960. The Essentiality Certificate should be submitted to the Licensing Authority when received. No application submitted after the last date that is, 15th August 1960, will be entertained by the Licensing Authorities.

4. With a view to ensure that the Industries, whose raw material requirements include other materials as well as Iron and Steel, get their licences more or less simultaneously it has been decided that Import Licence for Iron and Steel items for units borne on the list of the Development Wing, should be issued by Officer on Special Duty in the Department of Iron and Steel, Udyog Bhavan, New Delhi. Actual Users Borne on the Development Wing's list, should, therefore, send their applications for issue of Import Licences to the above mentioned officer.
